

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
DEPARTMENT OF CORPORATIONS

TEXT OF PROPOSED CHANGES UNDER THE CORPORATE SECURITIES LAW OF 1968
PURSUANT TO NOTICE
DATED: SEPTEMBER 24, 2008

1. Section 260.101.2 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

§ 260.101.2. Certified National Securities Exchanges.

~~(a)~~ Pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25101 of the Code, the following national securities exchanges are certified:

The American Stock Exchange

The NASDAQ Global Market

The New York Stock Exchange

NYSE Arca

Tier I of the Philadelphia Stock Exchange

~~(b) Pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25101 of the Code, the interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. is certified, but only to the extent that the securities on the interdealer quotation system are those of an issuer which has a security designated as a National Market System security.~~

~~(c) Pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25101 of the Code, the American Stock Exchange is certified, but only to the extent that the securities are those of an issuer which has a security that is regularly listed on the American Stock Exchange. An issuer with securities listed on the American Stock Exchange's "Emerging Company Marketplace" or the "AMEX/ECM" is not an issuer which has a security that is regularly listed on the American Stock Exchange and, therefore, the exemption afforded by subdivision (a) of Section 25101 from the qualification requirements of Section 25130 of the Code is unavailable. Emerging Company Marketplace or AMEX/ECM securities~~

~~have the suffix ".EC" as part of their ticker symbol to distinguish them from securities which are regularly listed on the American Stock Exchange.~~

~~(d) Pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25101 of the Code, the Pacific Stock Exchange is certified, but with respect to the Small Corporate Offering Registration ("SCOR") securities on the Pacific Stock Exchange's SCOR Marketplace only the common stock and preferred stock listed on the SCOR Marketplace are exempt from the qualification requirements of Section 25130 of the Code. SCOR Marketplace securities have the suffix ".SC" as part of their tickler symbol to distinguish them from other securities listed on the Pacific Stock Exchange.~~

The phrase "traded in the market," as used in subdivision (f) of Section 25103 of the Code means a stock which is either listed or admitted to trading on a national securities exchange or which is the subject of two-way quotations (i.e., both bid and asked prices) regularly published ~~by one or more broker-dealers in the National Daily Quotation Service~~ on the electronic service operated by Pink Sheets LLC or the OTC Bulletin Board.

Note: Authority cited: Section 25610, Corporations Code. Reference: Section 25103, Corporations Code.

3. Section 260.105.7 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

§ 260.105.7. Inter-Dealer Quotations.

There is hereby exempted from the provisions of Section 25130 of the Code as not being comprehended within the purposes of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 and the qualification of which is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors, inter-dealer solicitations when published and circulated to broker-dealers on a regular subscription basis and in connection with which a charge (which may be included in the subscription price) is made for listing such solicitations. A publication is circulated to broker-dealers within the meaning of this rule when subscriptions are limited substantially to broker-dealers, banks, trust companies, and savings and loan associations subject to a provision that the information contained in the publication is for the private use of the subscriber. The quotation services of ~~the National Quotation Bureau~~ the Pink Sheets LLC, the OTC Bulletin Board, and The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC are exempt pursuant to this rule.

any unit or right arising from a compensation plan of the issuer or affiliate of the issuer payable in such shares or cash in an amount which relates to the value of and/or dividends paid on such shares, or both, whether or not subject to any contingency, if on the business day preceding the date of sale of such shares, warrant or right, or grant of such unit or right, all of the following requirements are met:

(1) Such shares (or the shares issuable upon exercise of such warrant or right or payable upon such unit or right) are issued by a person which is the issuer of any security registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 USC 781(g)) or exempted from such registration by Section 12(g)(2)(G) (15 USC 781(g)(2)(G)) of that Act;

(2) The shares to be offered or sold (or the shares issuable upon exercise of such warrant or right or payable upon such unit or right) are listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange approved for the purpose of this section by rule or order of the Commissioner, (or in the case of employee options or rights, shareholder approval is required of the options or rights or of the plan and the issuer has no reason to believe that, upon such approval, the shares issuable upon the exercise of such options or rights, will not be listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance) or quotations for the class of such shares are reported by the automated quotations system operated by ~~the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or a subsidiary thereof or by any other~~ quotation system approved by rule or order of the Commissioner pursuant to this section;

(3) Shares of the class to be offered or sold (or shares of the class issuable upon exercise of such warrant or right or payable upon such unit or right) shall have been traded or (in the case of shares traded only over-the-counter) offered for sale on each of at least twelve (12) days within the thirty (30) calendar days preceding the date of sale of such shares, warrant or right and during such period (A) shares of such class shall not have been suspended from trading by order of the Commissioner or the Securities and Exchange Commission; and (B) the average closing sale price and the last closing sale price of shares of such class (exclusive of any sale price for the business day preceding the offering) as reported on any national securities exchange on which shares of such class are listed, or the average closing bid price and the last closing bid price of shares of such class (exclusive of any bid price for the business day preceding the offering), as reported by the quotation system referred to in clause (2) of this subsection shall be at least $4 per share. Quotations appearing in the Wall Street Journal or any other publication approved by order of the Commissioner may be relied upon to satisfy the requirement of this clause (3);

(4) The issuer of such shares is a corporation organized under the laws of the United States or any state of the United States or the District of Columbia and meets all of the following requirements:

(A) Such corporation has an authorized capitalization which includes not more than one class of common shares, and such common shares are voting shares;

The determination of net income herein required, if such determination is made within 90 days after the close of its last fiscal year and prior to the availability of an audited statement for that period, may be based upon an unaudited statement for the period which the issuer reasonably believes is prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. In determining whether a corporation satisfies the requirements of this subsection (D), there may be included the net income of any corporation to whose assets such corporation, or a successor of such corporation, has succeeded by merger, consolidation or acquisition of assets, if such net income of such predecessor corporation may, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, be consolidated with the income of such corporation.

Neither a notice nor a fee is required if securities are offered but not sold in this state in the transaction. No fee is required for filing an amended notice unless the aggregate value of the securities sold is increased as explained in Rule 260.608.3.
